

Drumz

Lady Wray

I used to hold back my love (I used to run with the boys)
I didn't have love on my mind (No one was getting my time)
I used to fight it with steel (Didn't want to end up in tears)
But something told me inside (To just let love come on by)

Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love
Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love

I used to wander around (Party all night lost in the crowd)
Thought that I was feeling free (Now I know that this ain't me)
Really wanted someone on my side (Someone who's down for the ride)
Someone who'll let me be me (Don't care just take all of me)

Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love
Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love

See love is candy, love is bubblegum
Chocolate kisses, love is yummy yum
I'm feeling sexy
See love is candy, love is bubblegum
Chocolate kisses, love is yummy yum
I'm feeling sexy

Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love
Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love

Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love
Could this be love again?
I think this is love again
When I heard the drums, I fell in love
