

Another Runaway

Ladyhawke

I never said i was a one time woman
I never wrote it
I never said it
I should have known you'd leave me out here hanging on I should have seen it
I didn't get it

Oh oh oh i don't believe it
Oh oh oh you never mean it

It's too late, it's too late, it's too late to call back yester day
It's too late, it's too late i'm just another runaway
It's too late, it's too late, it's too late to call back yester
It's too late, it's too late i'm just a
Another runaway, another runaway
Another runaway, another runaway

You always said i was your part time woman
I don't believe it
I didn't see it
You always acting like a part time wanna be
I shoulda seen it
I didn't get it

Oh oh oh i don't believe it
Oh oh oh you never mean it

It's too late, it's too late, it's too late to call back yester
It's too late, it's too late i'm just another runaway
It's too late, it's too late, it's too late to call back yester
It's too late, it's too late i'm just a
Another runaway, another runaway
Another runaway, another runaway
Another runaway, another runaway

Oh oh oh i don't believe it
Oh oh oh you never mean it

It's too late, it's too late, it's too late to call back yester
It's too late, it's too late i'm just another runaway
It's too late, it's too late, it's too late to call back yester
It's too late, it's too late i'm just a

Another runaway, another runaway
Another runaway, another runaway
