Kids Don't Like to Share

Lagwagon

And now you're searching for that new messiah
It's your greatest passion, to set'em up and knock'em down
Put them on a pedestal idolatry, wear the ring you're married It's all yours to their envy, because you hold a higher key of senses
And they are drawn like magnets, to a genius, it's confirmed
R: Set'em up and knock'em down, tour taste is so accountable
This is no great loss, and sharing never was a choice
It's burning on your cross, it gives you credit and a voice Here to relay tour beautiful ideals vicaruiously through the m

And when he died too many were sympathetic, and they are all pa thetic So you dethrone your king, without listening, without ever list ening

And Jesus Christ is realized, as he burns on your cross But this is no great loss, another one will come The wait is short the search is brief, you find another faith, another clark kent, another superman, flashing in the pan

R:

And now you are searching for that new messiah It's your greatest passion, it's the latest fashion