

Could Be

Laila!

Oh, you know, how we could be
Don't you know, why don't you choose me?
I could be everything you want me to be
If you want for life to feel like fantasy
Oh, ooh, can I be?
Could I be?
Could I be?
The girl of your dreams
Could I be everything you'd ever seen
Could the both of us live outside of a dream
Tell me, could I, could I, could I be? (Could I)
For you, everything you ever need (Everything you need)
You could find it right here in me
And I'd be everything you see

Even if you travel far away
I want for you to know that I'mma stay
Cause baby you my, baby you my bae
I just wanna be where you are
Does it ever matter how far?
Cause I can't stand for us to be apart
