

Caught On Fire

Lainey Wilson

Fireworks goin' off inside
[?] when a soul comes alive
You can't stand still but you still can't move
When the passion and the heat overpowers you

Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why turn off a feeling that takes you higher?
Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why put out a heart when it's caught on fire?

It might burn, leave you with a scar
Enough to make you crazy
Make you forget who you are
But the recklessness is worth the ride
[?] two lips collide

Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why turn off a feeling that takes you higher?
Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why put out a heart when it's caught on fire?

And I take it to the sky, then leave and let you fall
But I'd rather hold you once than never at all

Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why turn off a feeling that takes you higher?
Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why put out a heart when it's caught on fire?

Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why turn off a feeling that takes you higher?
Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh
Why put out a heart when it's caught on fire?
Caught on fire
