

Dreamcatcher

Lainey Wilson

I'll be your whisper in the wind
In the moonlight dancin on your skin
And like a son I'll come back again
To pull you close and draw you in

I'll be your shelter in the rain
And a shooting star to take your pain
The common heat of a burning flame
The best kind of love on a ledge of sane

And I oooh
Standin in the way of any harm that's on you
And if you mind us tellin you lies I'll be the truth
To the song that makes you feel better
Leading you home through all the bad weather
Peace in the night I'll keep you forever
Baby I'll be your Dreamcatcher

When your lost and your feeling all alone
I'll be the north that points you home
And the southern comfort in your bones
And when it's hard to stand I'll be your strong

And I oooh
Standin in the way of any harm that's on you
And if you mind us tellin you lies I'll be the truth
To the song that makes you feel better
Leading you home through all the bad weather
Peace in the night I'll keep you forever
Baby I'll be your Dreamcatcher

And I oooh
Standin in the way of any harm that's on you
And if you mind us tellin you lies I'll be the truth
To the song that makes you feel better
Leading you home through all the bad weather
Peace in the night I'll keep you forever
Baby I'll be your Dreamcatcher
Baby I'll be your Dreamcatcher
