

One Night Stand

Lainey Wilson

Told myself I'd never fall for a little charm and alcohol
Thought I'd be stronger than that drink
But the words that he was whisperin', I couldn't stop from listenin'
Next thing I knew, I was gone and wakin' up

With a dried-up whiskey bottle and fancy pack of Marlboro
Ashes falling' in the tray, from workin' that night away
Like the red he took right off my lips
The hands that he put on my hips
I locked all my regret in a drawer beside his bed
In that one nightstand

By the time I made it home, looked in the mirror and it was gone
All of those pearls my mama passed down
So I shook my purse out on the floor
Retraced my steps from the night before
And it hit me right where it had to be

With a dried-up whiskey bottle and fancy pack of Marlboro
Ashes falling' in the tray, from workin' that night away
Like the red he took right off my lips
The hands that he put on my hips
I locked all my regret in a drawer beside his bed
In that one nightstand
In that one nightstand

Wish I could take it all back
In that one nightstand
In that one nightstand

With that dried-up whiskey bottle and fancy pack of Marlboro
Ashes falling' in the tray, from workin' that night away
Like the red he took right off my lips
The hands that he put on my hips
I locked all my regret in a drawer beside his bed
In that one nightstand

Told myself I'd never fall for a little charm and alcohol
