

One life, seventeen ways
Seventeen times, a devastating heartbreak
Seventeen calls, before I leave you
Seventeen mistakes, you all have to go through

Don't bleed, don't creep
Don't crawl, don't cry over me
Don't cry, waste your time
Just feel okay
You better believe
And feel that life has seventeen ways

Seventeen cards, before you pull the right one
Seventeen burdens, but only one breaks you down
Seventeen chances, but only one way to go
Seventeen clowns, but only one to be afraid of

Don't cry over me
