

Anywhere

Lakeside X

Anywhere you come from
Anywhere you're hiding
Anytime you're born and
Anytime you're dying

Anywhere you are
Anywhere away
Anyone you lose for
Anyone's sake
Anytime you're true
Anytime you lie
My eyes aren't blind
They're right behind you

Any ray of sunlight
That's falling on your eyes
Any masquerade
That's going through your mind

Anywhere you are, I wanna be Anywhere you come from, I wanna be
Anyone you shelter, anyone you mirror
Anytime you're sincere, anytime you're brittle

I'm a wooden doll, hanging on the wall
A little glint in Mary's arms

Anywhere you wander
My eyes are inside you
