

Dark Land

Lakeside X

Step by step
Round the world
I walk on
Deep inside
In my heart
Is the light
Clean and strong

And there's a feel in my eyes
There's a dream in my arms
There's a pain in my mouth
And I walk around

The dark land
Nobody stands
Neverending being of life
Inside

I'm passing by the land of dark
Against the time
Nobody knows where I go
Nobody knows if I came
And who am I

Perhaps I'm only thunder of bells
Only dark spectre
Or flash of light by half-opened window
Or word spoken in the ancient times
Maybe length extended
From star to star
