

Numb

Lakeside X

When I freeze to the bone
And it's cold like a stone
Nothing left to say
I feel numb

I wish that I could dream
But I can't fall asleep
Can't even breathe or scream
I feel numb

I'm on the run
Still on the run
I cannot leave
Stuck in a place
Where nothing awaits
Waits for me

I'm trying to understand
Why everything's damned
I'm loosing all around
I wanna be free
But something's holding me
I can't conceal

I cut myself with a knife
So I could know I'm still alive
But there's no blood inside
I feel numb
