

Wake Up

Lakeside X

Walking down the street tonight
I thought there was'nt a way to find
Did you see me?
My wrecked feelings?

Sometimes all seems to be wrong
Thinking you just can't go on
It's neverending
Like the colours freezing

And I was bare
I was lying to myself
My disease
There was no release in me

Carved in my past
And the pain in my chest
The sunrise was gone
In the freezing cold

And no stars to be fallen
Down on the ground
And no songs to be played
In the whore of the sound

But if you're here in my arms
If you see my blue eyes
If the world's yours and mine
There still has to be a chance
