Time

Lakeside

I want you
Hey, baby you're where it's at
I need you
Now, what do you think of that?
Please stay, girl, with me
Darling you can see that I'm so lonely

But my love is one thing I'm holding back
'Til I'm sure that this isn't just an act
I trust all the things you're saying are for real
'Cause I've been hoping time

Time will be the one to decide
Time to know the secrets that you hide
Time to know the feelings kept inside
If it's truly love it's all in time

Feelings, that I never felt before
Go through me each time you walk through the door
I want to pour my heart out, out to you
(Out to you)
But the baskets are empty
And before I lay down to sleep at night
I pray that everything will be alright
I can't stand the pain, no no
Not again, so I can take my time

Time will be the one to decide
Time to know the secrets that you hide
Time to know the feelings kept inside
If it's truly love it's all in time

Time will be the one to decide
Time to know the secrets that you hide
Time to know the feelings kept inside
If it's truly love it's all in time

You might think it's silly and it's all just in my mind
But, try and understand, that's just the way I am
I'm trying to be a man about it
So when I give you all my heart
You'll know, it's love and feels so good

Time will be the one to decide
Time to know the secrets that you hide
Time to know the feelings kept inside
If it's truly love it's all in time

Time will be the one to decide
Time to know the secrets that you hide
Time to know the feelings kept inside
If it's truly love it's all in time

Time brings out the best in me
Only if you stay with me
I believe, I believe, I believe, I believe
I believe I'm gonna love you

Love you...
It's all in time
It's all in time
Maybe this time
Maybe this time... love doesn't hurt
