Chasing Dreams Without Sleep

Lakeview

I hope you know,
This isn't who I am.
I'm sorry for the way this has been.

And I, I want this so badly,
I'd do anything to make this up to you.

I've given up on these pathetic things that have tried to tare up apart.
(Now this is killing me)
These second chance i threw the all away.
No looking back I've lost everything.

How, how could I let this replace our love?
(I'm ashamed of all that I've become)
How, how could I've been so blind.
When everything was right before my eyes.

(Chorus)
If we can make it through this rain,
Then we can find our way through anything.
Just remember our promise,
To keep this honest.
You're honestly everything to me.

This cavity is just a hole,
An empty promise of a soul.
I told you I could change.
(I told you I could change)
Just give me one last chance to prove this to you.
Just please remember this.
I, I'd walk the world for you.
(I'm ashamed of all that I have done)
I forgot what meant the most to me,
And that was you.

(Chorus)
If we can make it through this rain,
Then we can find our way through anything.
Just remember our promise to keep this honest.
You're honestly everything.

I'm not going down without a fight.
(chant) I'm not going down without a fight.

I hope you know this isn't who I am.
I'm sorry for the way that this had to end.
COME DOWN!

(group vocals)
I wish this didn't,
I wish this didn't have to,
I wish this didn't have to end this way.
