

Drunk Prayer

Lakeview

(God, do You answer drunk prayers?)
(God, do You answer drunk prayers?)

I know we haven't even talked in weeks
When I'm drunk, it always seems
I gotta ask You for one
Yeah, one more second try
To unbreak this heart of mine
Make everything just right
They say sober thoughts are a drunk man's prayers
Right now, I need a hundred proof that You're still there
I know with the state I'm in, it's a little unfair
To find faith in here

But I hope You can find me
You know where I'm gon' be
Sitting on a barstool confessional
Wonder if You can hear me
Through smoke and the whiskey
Or is it just an unanswered last call?
Is this the one place You won't go
Or are You sitting with me here?
God, do You answer drunk prayers?

Can You tell Grandpa for me?
Moved out to chase these dreams
Hope he's so proud of me
It's true, it's been a hell of a week
I earned this cold, stiff drink
I deserve a break, don't You think?
You could show up before I drink this bottle dry
I need a sign tonight

But I hope You can find me
You know where I'm gon' be
Sitting on a barstool confessional
Wonder if You can hear me
Through smoke and the whiskey
Or is it just an unanswered last call?
Is this the one place You won't go
Or are You sitting with me here?
God, do You answer drunk prayers?

God, I know You're up there, don't know where to start
By the end of this night, You'll hear an honest man's heart

I hope You can find me (Hope you can find me)
I know where I'm gon' be (Know where I'm gon' be)
Wonder if you can hear me (Wonder if you can hear me)
Through the smoke and the whiskey

I need You to find me
You know where I'm gon' be
Sitting on a barstool confessional
Wonder if You can hear me
Through smoke and the whiskey
Or is it just an unanswered last call?

Is this the one place You won't go
Or are You sitting with me here?
God, do You answer drunk prayers?

(God, do You answer drunk prayers?)
