

Long Time Listener

Lakeview

There's three minutes and forty-three seconds
That could ruin my whole damn day
But those three minutes and forty-three seconds
Used to be my favorite thing
Her singing our song so loud that her voice gave out
Wish I woulda known how everything would turn out
Those three minutes and forty-three seconds
Are something I can't handle right now

In this beat up old truck only gets one station
Just my luck right now is when you play it
I didn't think that it would hurt me like this so
Could you put on anything that isn't this song
Makes me wanna see if she moved on
And ask myself what the hell did I do wrong?
DJ could you turn it off? I don't wanna bother
'Cause I'm a long-time listener
I don't wanna call her

If I hear this for one more second
I don't even know where I would start
But I can't go back so stop that track
Yeah if you even got a heart
Man if I called her up I bet she'd hang up
I'd still be stuck

In this beat up old truck only gets one station
Just my luck right now is when you play it
I didn't think that it would hurt me like this so
Could you put on anything that isn't this song
Makes me wanna see if she moved on
And ask myself what the hell did I do wrong?
DJ could you turn it off? I don't wanna bother
'Cause I'm a long-time listener
And I don't wanna call her
I don't wanna call her

There's three minutes and forty-three seconds
That could ruin my whole damn day
But those three minutes and forty-three seconds
Used to be my favorite thing

This beat up old truck only gets one station
Just my luck right now is when you play it
I didn't think that it would hurt me like this so
Could you put on anything that isn't this song
Makes me wanna see if she moved on
And ask myself what the hell did I do wrong?
DJ could you turn it off? I don't wanna bother
'Cause I'm a long-time listener
I don't wanna call her

I don't wanna call her
'Cause I'm a long-time listener
And I don't wanna call her
I don't wanna call her
