Lakeview

(Message in a bottle)

(Message in a bottle)

I guess you ran out of love
Now I'm fillin' my cup
With something that ain't nowhere near
Strong enough
Ain't doing as well as I thought
Drinkin' to all that it was
I'm still nursing this Bourbon
To the memory of us
Baby, if I'm being honest
Heartbreak's hard to swallow

Ain't gonna water it down, ain't gon' pour it out
Ain't gon' hurry on through this last first round
Let it burn like hell, I can't help myself
From thinking of you, only time will tell
But it won't be tonight, hell, I won't even try
I'll get drunk on the memories of you and I
If I text you, honey, when I get to the bottom
You can call it just a message in a bottle, yeah
Message in a bottle, baby

I think about you and I wonder
But I don't know why I bother
'Cause the truth is you'll still
Be gone tomorrow

Ain't gonna water it down, ain't gon' pour it out
Ain't gon' hurry on through this last first round
Let it burn like hell, I can't help myself
From thinking of you, only time will tell
But it won't be tonight, hell, I won't even try
I'll get drunk on the memories of you and I
If I text you, honey, when I get to the bottom
You can call it just a message in a bottle, yeah
Message in a bottle, baby
Message in a bottle, baby
Oh

Baby, if I'm being honest
Heartbreak's hard to swallow

Ain't gonna water it down, ain't gon' pour it out
Ain't gon' hurry on through this last first round
Let it burn like hell, I can't help myself
From thinking of you, only time will tell
But it won't be tonight, hell, I won't even try
I'll get drunk on the memories of you and I
If I text you, honey, when I get to the bottom
You can call it just a message in a bottle, yeah
Message in a bottle, baby
Message in a bottle, baby
Oh, yeah

Baby, if I'm being honest

Heartbreak's hard to swallow
