

Why
Why
Why lie baby? Who hurt you?

Yeah right now I think I'm crazy
I didn't leave you right from the start
I'm sick of sitting round waiting
For you to show me who you really are

I could taste it on your lips
The scars under that kiss
I don't wanna dig up your past
Hate to but I gotta ask

Why
Why is this so hard for you?
'Cause I
I don't think you ever told the truth
Bet somebody left a hole in your heart
What the hell did they put you through?
So why
Why lie baby, who hurt you?

Yeah I know you'd do the same thing
If you were in my boots I know you wouldn't blame me
Yeah I'm running outta time and you're running outta lies
Ain't no point in tryna hide anymore

I could taste it on your lips
The scars under that kiss
I don't wanna dig up your past
Hate to but I gotta ask

Why
Why is this so hard for you?
'Cause I
I don't think you ever told the truth
Bet somebody left a hole in your heart
What the hell did they put you through?
So why
Why lie baby, who hurt you?

Why
Why is this so hard for you?
'Cause I
I don't think you ever told the truth
Bet somebody left a hole in your heart
What the hell did they put you through?
So why
Why lie baby, who hurt you?
