

The Dark Side

Laleh

Is it in my blood or in my head?
Am I really back at it
Hanging by a thread, panicking?

Is it in my blood or in my head?
I know I've been through this before
I survived it then, I'll survive once more

I keep forgetting at the start
When it rushes through my heart
And it feels like I am dying but I'm not
No, you're not

Just wait it out, you know the drill
You've got your God-given will
No, I'm not giving in
To the darkness

No, wait, I'm panicking

Welcome to the dark side
Welcome to the other side of you
Welcome to the truth, take a look around

Welcome to the dark sky
Welcome, take your time, it's over soon
Like bad weather passing through
We'll wait it out

Wait, I'm panicking, I'm panicking
Wait, I'm panicking

Is it in my blood or in my head?
Isn't it obvious?
I'm making things up from dust
Blow things up

Is it in my blood or in my head?
Just 'cause it feels so real
Doesn't mean it is
Sweetie, we've been through this

I keep forgetting at the start
When it rushes through my heart
It feels like I am dying but I'm not
No, you're not

Wait it out, you know the drill
You've got your God-given will
No, I'm not giving in
To this darkness

Wait, I'm panicking

Welcome to the dark side
Welcome to the other side of you
Welcome to the truth, take a look around

Welcome to the dark sky
Welcome, take your time, it's over soon
Like bad weather passing through
We'll wait it out

Wait, I'm panicking, I'm panicking
Wait, I'm panicking, I'm panicking
Wait, wait, I'm panicking, I'm panicking
