

One Hand Clapping

Lamb

Woken by a square of blue sky
All of life in my hips
I could see it when I had no eyes
Taste the salt on my lips

Can you hear the sound it makes
Even if I block your ears
Come let's sit here as long as it takes
I'm more than happy here

One hand clapping is the rhythm of the world
One hand clapping is all
One hand clapping is the rhythm of the world
One hand clapping is all

All is one and not two
All is one and not two
All is one and not two
All is one

One hand clapping is the rhythm of the world
One hand clapping is all
One hand clapping is the rhythm of the world
One hand clapping is all
