

Faerie Tale State Of Mind

Lana Lane

Laid in my bed last night, a faerie tale state of mind
Pastel dreams drift slowly by as i leave the world behind
Where did you come from?
Have you been there all the time?
Pastel dreams drift slowly by in a faerie tale state of mind

Of you I dream...
Made in heaven, all I could do was feel
I tasted love like never before
Everything was surreal
And now I'm waiting for the next time
You take me away where we can fly
In a faerie tale state of mind

Of you I dream...

Here today, gone forever after
I touch the sky in dreams

Of you I dream...
