

Reverie

Lana Lane

A moonlit angel stole my heart
And tried to heal my broken wings
She holds my sou up

Standing with time
Autumn rains wash the tears
From the sky
Flying high
Like a singing string I feel alive

I watch the hands of love move down
Across a cloud of windswept dreams
I hold my head up

Standing with time
Autumn rains wash the tears
From the sky
Flying high
Like a singing string I feel alive

Far away candles light the falling sun
And diamonds fill the naked sky
Walking barefoot on orchid petals soft
My soul is free to fly

A moonlit angel stole my heart
And tried to heal my broken wings
She holds my sou up...
