Lancey Foux

Ahh

Action man, sell my note to Jack the lad
Going to school and my lunch got packed with xans
Lot's of green, little bit of white, Pakistan
That's paraphernalia I can't shake your hand
Action man, sell my note to Jack the lad
Going to school and my lunch got packed with xans
Lot's of green, little bit of white, Pakistan
That's paraphernalia I can't shake your hand

She talking typical, typical, typical Every shop clinical, clinical, clinical
I cut a few babies, umbilical, umbilical
And I'm on the internet, minimal, minimal
They hear what I say start taking it literal
I'm not with the politics my dawg is liberal
Don't take it literal, R Kelly swag I pull-up and piss on you
We ain't closing tabs we ain't clearing history
Aim by a bag nigga you're missing
Coupe clean, same colour Listerine
Everyday Halloween I got some tricking
You were there from the start, so don't you my nigga
To my payments are art, I got some dawgs that are your misery
It's only Lance I know that's killing me

Action man, sell my note to Jack the lad
Going to school and my lunch got packed with xans
Lot's of green, little bit of white, Pakistan
That's paraphernalia I can't shake your hand
Action man, sell my note to Jack the lad
Going to school and my lunch got packed with xans
