

Daylight

Lancey Foux

She said, she said
She said, she said, she said
She said, "I wanna love to the daylight"
She said, "I wanna love 'til the day I die"
She said, "I wanna love to the daylight"
And she said, "I wanna love 'til the day I"
She said, she said, she said

She needs someone that knows her body
Needs some expertise
She needs some motivation
She been lookin' for some men
Twenty-four hours, someone there when she need
I'm startin' to see the daylight, she won't let me leave
Baby girl, can we make time? Uh
Quick to get you wet like a deadlight
Pour you out your dress like red wine

I tell her get dressed and send her address (Spin that block, yeah)
She got a idea, baby is pressed (Oh, baby pressed)
All she know is, yeah, she is princess (Yes, yes, yes)
Of course, for sure, you got it, uh-huh, unless (That's you)
I don't have it no more, and even if you get the rest (She got it)
It's a party, a party, a party, baby, it's a bet (Party, party)
I put it on my life, baby, you and me, we gon' be set (We gon' be gre at)
And if you ain't got it, that mean you ain't made it yet
Oh, she actin' sadity, she get that from me (Why you do that, for rea l? Huh)
She lookin' pretty, more pretty than me (Damn, girl, you look better than moi)
Do that lil' trick, baby, that's me (Woo)
You keep it soft, you keep it G (Damn)
You keep it short, you keep it sweet (Damn)
You're on my back, you're on my feet (Woo)

I wanna love to the daylight
She said, "I wanna love 'til the day I die"
She said, "I wanna love to the daylight"
And she said, "I wanna love 'til the day I"
4 a.m., 5 a.m., 6 a.m
In my head wildin', I ain't listenin'
Girl, don't be stylin', I show you some different plays
Girl, don't be stylin', I'll swap you out and switch you in

If you complain about the time I give
Don't you complicate the simple things
No, no
She said, "I wanna love to the daylight"
I wanna love 'til the day I die
I wanna love to the daylight
