

TRY AGAIN

Lancey Foux

They told you that I'm no good for you, no good, yeah
They told you that I'm no good for you, yeah-yeah, ooh-ooh
Been waiting for the perfect moment I've been waiting for the perfect moment to tell you what's been on my mind, yeah
Got some mysteries I can't put to the side, yeah
Ooh, you, you gon be feeling like I'm running out of time, yeah
Going crazy just to feed your desires
Live my truth, but you still think I'm lying, yeah-yeah Live my truth, but you still think I'm lying
All I know, gonna make you mine again, maybe, we should try again in
Try again, try again
Try again, try again
Try again, try again
Gonna make you mine again, gonna make you mine again

Like I was saying, like I was saying, let's try again, let's try again
Let's try again, let's try again girl
Let's try again, let's try again
I just need a moment to embrace all my sins
I won't go missing, I won't go distant
Like I was saying, like I was saying, let's try again, let's try
again
Let's try again, let's try again
Let's try again, baby
Let's try again, baby
Let's try again, baby
