

Last Call

LANCO

This dive is packed tonight
Five-buck shots, two-dollar domestic lights
The band only has a couple more
Wouldn't know it by lookin' at the crowded dance floor

There's college kids and businessmen
Some rowdy mothers, ex-lovers and some new best friends
Nowhere to go next
Get a ride or get left
Some will go home and all the rest
All the rest

Are lookin' for love at last call
Where happily ever never happens at all
Lookin' to hold somebody tight long after midnight, and
Swear it ain't the alcohol
Just lookin' for love at last call

They're playin' "Closing Time"
A beautiful blonde is talkin' to just her type
They'll buy another round
Toast to forever and what they found

Lookin' for love at last call
Where happily ever never happens at all
Lookin' to hold somebody tight long after midnight, and
Swear it ain't the alcohol
Just lookin' for love at last call
Lookin' for love at last call

Ain't we all?
Ain't we all?

Bartender turns up the lights
She sees it almost every night
She counts her tips and she don't judge
'Cause in a way, yeah, all of us

Lookin' for love at last call
Where happily ever never happens at all
Lookin' to hold somebody tight long after midnight, and
Swear it ain't the alcohol
Just lookin' for love at last call
Lookin' for love at last call

Lookin' for love at last call
Lookin' for love at last call
Ain't we all?
