

So Long (I Do)

LANCO

Now every single summer, on the Fourth of July
I'm thinking about you baby and I don't know why
But I do, oh, I do
See the fireworks dancing up in the air
And I think about the ocean and your salty hair
I do, oh, I do

If I see you in a bar, and I ask you to dance
Will you remember our little summer romance
'Cause I do, oh, I do

'Cause it was one night, it was one chance
When the morning sun came up over the sand
So long, you were gone
Didn't get your number, don't know where you're from
But if you're out there I hope you still drink rum
I do, oh, I do

And when you get a little buzzed and lay under the stars
Do you still think about how small we are, we are Look up at the sky, know I'm with you tonight, no matter how far apart
We are, we are, we are, we are

'Cause it was one night, it was one chance
When the morning sun came up over the sand
So long, you were gone
So long, so long, so long

It was one night, it was one chance
When the morning sun came up, came up
It was one night, it was one chance
When the morning sun came up over the sand
So long

And I probably won't ever see you again
But I'll always dream of taking your hand and saying I do, oh, I do
