

Calming Night Partner

Land of Talk

Was it a calming night partner?
Did you laugh 'til the sun writes the sky?
Was it a knife-fight?
Was it a lifetime?
Did she wear you down
Wear you in
Sacrificial
Did she tear you right down the middle?
And, in the right way
does she ever call you

I wanna wake with silver
I wanna wake with gold
Walk me outside, babe
It's more than I can hold

Sweet isolation

So close your eyes
We like it like that
Did we do the right thing
Did we say the wrong line?

Whenever I feel locked out
Come back
Whenever I see you look down
not looking up
Take it easy
I just wanna hold you

I wanna wake with silver
I wanna wake with gold
Nothing like letting go

Was it a calming night partner?
Did you dance 'til the dawn lights the night?
Was it a knife fight?
Was it a lifetime?
Did she pull you in, wear you down
Sacrificial?
And tear you right down the middle
And in God's view
Does she ever call you?

I wanna wake with silver
I wanna wake with gold
And on my side

The One is listening.

I'll have a hidden hold.

I wanna wake with silver
I wanna wake with gold
And on my side

The One is listening.

I'll have a hidden hold.

Sweet isolation
