

Semi-Precious

Land of Talk

The sunlight is eating the day
Give that fire something to bite
Just 'cause I don't want to be afraid
Unfulfilled and something ain't right

Precious, I don't think so
Filled the faith of one night of life
Need someone to tell it better
We can fade so somebody sees

I lost and I found myself daily
Make the sunlight hit 'til it sleeps
And now that I feel a lot better
Help yourself to something you see

Some ways, some ways
There's a certain feeling in a place
These souls made of light
We deserved it
In ways, in ways
This is something I don't feel anymore
For the time I'm afraid of
So stay here, stay here
Stay here, stay

The sunlight is getting away
Make the fire with something we find
That's the sound of breathing slowly
We can fade so nobody sees

I lost and I found myself daily
Make the sunlight hit 'til it bleeds
And now that I feel a lot better
Help yourself to something you see

Some ways, some ways
There's a certain feeling in a place
These souls made of light
We deserved it
In ways, in ways
This is something I don't feel anymore
For the time I'm afraid of

Stay here
Stay here
Stay here
Stay here
