

Enough

Landon Austin

Please stop calling, you've been dishonest
I've been through enough
Two face promise, scars and traumas
You put me through enough
Yeah, I've been through, through
Enough with you, you
Please stop calling, you've been dishonest
Stop, you've done enough

Yeah, had to walk away from all the lies
I think that it's time for me to rise again, yeah
Yeah, can't believe I wasted all my time
Just to tell another one, "Goodbye, my friend"
You already walked that line
You crossed it many times
Yeah, you know how to get the best of me
You said you changed, you won't
I guess I should've known
You'll never get another chance with me

Yeah, like don't you think I've been through enough?
Baby, we've been falling in out of love
You shot me down, yeah, lost all my trust
Everything you promisin' is really a bluff

Please stop calling, you've been dishonest
I've been through enough
Two face promise, scars and traumas
You put me through enough
Yeah, I've been through, through
Enough with you, you
Please stop calling, you've been dishonest
Stop, you've done enough

Memories all in my head, I've been playing the same one
Been playing the same ones
Yeah, gotta move on
Yeah, it's not gonna be the same it was once, the way it was once was
It's time to leave, you gotta go
Just let me be, I'm on my own
I'm sick of you and all your moods
And I ain't here to play no games

Yeah, like don't you think I've been through enough?
Baby, we've been falling in out of love
You shot me down, yeah, lost all my trust
Everything you promisin' is really a bluff

Please stop calling, you've been dishonest
I've been through enough
Two face promise, scars and traumas
You put me through enough
Yeah, I've been through, through
Enough with you, you
Please stop calling, you've been dishonest
Stop, you've done enough
