

Where you're at is where I'll be
Sitting beneath those big tall trees in the yard
Outside your front door
The sun goes down, you start looking around
You're waiting for something
I pray to God it's me
That would be so great
'Cause I'm falling in love with you

And I would wait for you
Even if it's the last thing I would ever do for you
The sun goes down in your eyes
Just open up and realize I would never leave your side
I would wait for you

You make sure to wave at the people who pass on by You're the first to say hello, but you never say goodbye
You could sit all day and listen
Your face, your smile, it makes you glisten
And oh, you give me a brighter day

And I would wait for you
Even if it's the last thing I would ever do for you
The sun goes down in your eyes
Just open up and realize I would never leave your side
I would wait for you

You wait outside, you got those big brown eyes
And I love your smile, as you're waiting outside for me
And you sit beneath those trees

And I would wait for you
Even if it's the last thing I would ever do for you
The sun goes down in your eyes
Just open up and realize I would never leave your side
I would wait for you
I would wait for you
I would wait for you
