

All I Want

Lane 8

Fire you flame in eyes only for me
Cool against the judgement I believe
And we can see it heading somewhere
We can feel it open our field of view
We can see it rising out here
Taking all that I have and make it all you

All I want is you, you, you
All I want is you
All I want is you, you, you
All I want is you

Skin so hot to touch you burn through me
Cool against my own desire and needs
And we can see it heading somewhere
We can feel it open our field of view
We can see it rising out here
Taking all that I have and make it all you

All I want is you, you, you
All I want is you
All I want is you, you, you
All I want is you

All I want is you

(All I want is you
All I want is you
All I want is you
All I want is you
All I want is you
All I want is you
All I want is you)

All I want is you
You for me
You for me
There is no other
You for me
