

How Often

Lane 8

Kept me by your side
And all your wishes on the shelf
You fell like a stone top
The base dissolving without a blow
Tracing back the knowns

How often I decide
To keep trippin' on my stars
How often I decide
To fold you in my arms
How often I decide
How often I decide
Who you are
Ooh, ah
Ooh, ah

And I was thrown
Further than ever, the light surprised us
Tell me by the right time, oh, by the right time
And I was thrown
Waiting to better define us
Tell me by the right time, oh, by the right time, you're done
Tell me by the right time, oh
Oh, by the right time

I need more than dark rooms
The table full of all our clothes
I can't feel at home, I can't feel at home

How often I decide
To keep trippin' on my stars
How often I decide
To fold you in my arms

And I was thrown
Further than ever, the light surprised us
Tell me by the right time, oh, by the right time
And I was thrown
Waiting to better define us
Tell me by the right time, oh, by the right time, you're done
Tell me by the right time
Oh, by the right time
Tell me by the right time
Oh, by the right time
