

Road

Lane 8

I've been staring at a road
I've been staring at a road

I've been staring at a road
Too scared to follow up
Even as the sunset descends on me
I stay unmoved to change the view
Of where it leads
(Of where it leads)

I've been staring at a road
I've been staring at a road
I've been staring at a road
I've been staring at a road

I feel the weight of what I need
Come crash full force into me
I see the stars, they light the sky
And wonder where I fit into line
Into line
(Into line)

I've been staring at a road (Into line)
I've been staring at a road (Into line)
I've been staring at a road (Into line)
I've been staring at a road (Into line)

(In the night)
(In the night)

I feel weak behind the night
Cries I hear echo inside
Even as the sunrise ascends on me
I stay unmoved to change the view
Of where this leads
(Of where this leads)

I've been staring at a road
I keep getting closer, I only know
I keep getting closer
I've been staring at a road
I keep getting closer, I only know
I keep getting closer
I've been staring at a road
I keep getting closer, I only know
I keep getting closer
I've been staring at a road
I keep getting closer, I only know
I keep getting closer
I've been staring at a road
I keep getting closer, I only know
I keep getting closer
