

A Twin Phenomenon

Lanfear

Stucked in a place, where the calm surrounds me
Electroconvulsive caresses, what a pleasant apathy

Swim through the liquid boundaries

I swallowed all the pills, but your image never faded
They've tried to tame the beast and I've missed you through all the ages

As the Gemini rises
The needle plunges deep
Into my cerebral cortex
And leaves me breathless

Torn in two, my soul so ambiguous and cruel
Medicate and sedate
Diminishing the sane

Catatonic misbehaviour, frayed by mental spires
Domestication, exhibited isolation
We've left hundreds of murdered souls behind

Break all the chains that bound me

Torn in two, my soul so ambiguous and cruel
Medicate and sedate
Diminishing the sane

Wade through the liquid boundaries
Drop all the chains that bound me

In the quietness of these silent walls
Schizophrenic echoes of a celestial call

I hope to meet you at the crossroad of the neural pathways
But the needle leaves me helpless

Torn in two, my soul so ambiguous and cruel
Medicate and sedate
Diminishing the sane

Don't fear my power games,
I'm just insane...
...and a part of you
