

Brave New Men

Lanfear

Like a brush in hand, painting perfect pics
Of the perfect child, of what we would like to be
The vision is clear, a new way to complete

Selling, unrestrained
Complying with their wishes in the shopping list
Splitting society into the gene-richs and the poor have-nots

Redesigning humans
Forged by scientists and madmen
Lead the superficial to an art
A way to Neverland

How can we listen to their lies?
Genetically paralyzed
Enhanced and compromised
(They're) selling them "Brave New Men inside" to be strong

Terrorizing rules, men used as mere tools
Altering DNA, create disease-free fools
Lifting their hopes to a withered plain

Many deeds have been pattered out in vain
They're excused
Helpless as we stand, enough reasons to be concerned
Beneath the bridge of sighs

Redesigning humans
Forged by scientists and madmen
Lead the superficial to an art
A way to Neverland

How can we listen to their lies?
Genetically paralyzed
Enhanced and compromised
(They're) selling them "Brave New Men inside" to be strong

Waiting for the day to wash diminishing sins away
Wondering if we could ever be another sense of change
The past, the present - no one's future's told

How can we listen to their lies?
Genetically paralyzed
Enhanced and compromised
(They're) selling them "Brave New Men inside" to be strong

"We have begun to play God in so many intimate realms of life that we could not turn back, even if we tried"
