

Remain Undone

Lanfear

Staring through darkest night
Where are you?
Revealed secrets try to evoke the truth
I cannot leave behind the fear and doubt
Become detached from it
And I don't know how

My words fall down
Lay down and die
I'll leave them behind

A sad revealing emptiness
It cannot be undone
I'm searching for enlightenment
But there's nothing I can do
Fleeing from a veil of darkness
Decisions to be made
I forced myself
But there's nothing I can do
They remain undone

Nothing stays the same
Where did I go so wrong?
A choice to rearrange in silent adoration
There's nothing wrong with silence
Nothing to feed my lies
Now I'm here
I'm feeling down
Wasting my life away

My words fall down
Lay down and die
I'll leave them behind

A sad revealing emptiness
It cannot be undone
I'm searching for enlightenment
But there's nothing I can do
Fleeing from a veil of darkness
Decisions to be made
I forced myself
But there's nothing I can do
They remain undone
