

The Delusionist

Lanfear

Do you hate to step into my world?
The decay of old values must be stopped!
For our beliefs the free spirit must be slaughtered
And this time we'll be braver than before

With poisoning poetry
Let me seduce you

Spread the long-forgotten words
If you dare to speak and to understand
They called me delusionist
But now they have to care for me

Scream out loud in anger - blind hatred and disdain
I simply gathered the wicked and insane
Scream out loud in anger - state of constant denial
We ravage the land
Burn this place to the ground
Until nothing remains

With poisoning paradigms
Let me infiltrate you

Spread the long-forgotten words
If you dare to speak and to understand
They called me delusionist
But now they have to care for me
