

Hello Sunshine

Langhorne Slim

Hello sunshine, the sun is shining
It's summertime, I'm getting so excited
Forget goodbyes, forget goodnight
You can close your eyes but I won't let you out of my sight

There's a place I know in lower Manhattan
If you want to we can go, there's always something happening
They know me there, they're very nice
It's owned by a carpenter and his ex-wife

Hello sunshine

So much of life seems spent wasting time
I won't waste yours if you don't waste mine
This big old world's still here
When we close our eyes
So let's just close them for a little while

There's a place I know in Pennsylvania
If you don't want to go, well darling I can't blame you
I feel alright by your side
Hello I'm yours, hello sunshine

Hello sunshine...
