Never Break

Langhorne Slim

Love is the key
And under the stars
I lit a flame
To dance in the dark

Break my bones
You can break my heart
But you'll never break me

Love is the ocean
We are the fish
Love's the surgeon
And we are the stitch

I've been wounded
But I promise you this
You will never break me

Love is the Buddha
The Christ on the cross
Angels are weeping
Their tears are for us

Lies of our kind
Well it comes at a cost
Let's fall in love with our telephones off

Love's my president, my lord, and my boss
And you'll never break me
