Yer Wrong

Langhorne Slim

You're wrong, you're wrong tonight
You're wrong, you're wrong tonight

The bigger the bark, the lesser the bite
I'll put on my gloves if you want to fight
But you're wrong, you're wrong tonight

We're not the first and we won't be the last
To spit and to curse like a couple of assholes
You're wrong, you're wrong tonight
You're wrong, you're wrong tonight
Oh you're wrong, you're wrong tonight

A mister and misses turn out the light
You love to pretend that you're right
Oh but you're wrong
You're wrong, you're wrong tonight
You're wrong, you're wrong tonight
You're wrong, you're wrong tonight

Oh you're wrong, you're wrong tonight
Say you're wrong, you're wrong
