

Zombie

Langhorne Slim

La da da, la da da
La da da, la da da
La da da, la da da

She was so good lookin'
Wonderin' what she was cookin'
It smelled so good

She had an old suitcase
Full of skulls
She kissed my lips
My blood ran cold
I couldn't wait to give my soul but
She didn't want it

She's a zombie
She's a zombie and it's true
She's a zombie through and through

La da da, la da da
La da da, la da da
La da da, la da da

She only come out at dark
We meet at midnight down
In city park

She never seem to feel no pain
We drank red wine in the pouring rain
She read big books about the human brain, now
There's no doubt about it

She's a zombie
She's a zombie and it's true
She's a zombie through and through

La da da, la da da
La da da, la da da
La da da, la da da

I wanted her heart
She said it'd already been torn apart
So I asked her if I could walk her home
She just shook her head and moaned
I never felt so alone
New love could be so deadly

She's a zombie
She's a zombie and it's true
She's a zombie
She's a zombie
She's a zombie
She's a zombie
She's a zombie
