

Back To Life

Lansdowne

Get up
Pull yourself down
Load the chamber, let it linger
One last time I'm on the edge again

Right up
Pull it back down
The blade feels like a pointing finger
All I see is angels on their knees

Too far gone
This is not where you save me

Lay it down and say your goodbyes
Just kiss it goodbye
Tears can't bring this back to life

All you ever knew was a lie
So kiss it goodbye
Tears can't bring this back to life

Hold out
Never give in
Build the walls and watch them all fall
One by one until there's nothing left

So cold
So far away
Call out but no one hears the words I say
No one can rescue me

You can't save me

Lay it down and say your goodbyes
Just kiss it goodbye
Tears can't bring this back to life

All you ever knew was a lie
So kiss it goodbye
Tears can't bring this back
When you fall to your knees
And you call begging please
Lay it down and say your goodbyes
Just kiss it goodbye
Your tears can't bring this back to life

I am fallen and broken
On each breath I'm choking
Gasping for something to lift me up

It's a sickness, a darkness
The world is so heartless
Reaching for someone to wake me up

Too far gone
This is not where you save me

Lay it down and say your goodbyes
Just kiss it goodbye
Tears can't bring this back to life

All you ever knew was a lie
So kiss it goodbye
Tears can't bring this back
When you fall to your knees
And you call begging please
Lay it down and say your goodbyes
Just kiss it goodbye
Your tears can't bring this back to life
