

Falling Down

Lansdowne

I could be angel, live under the law
Or party with the devil, 'til hell begins to thaw
Come in like a lion, and riot with my prey
Or go out nice and quiet, and try to run away
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
I can wear the brightest smile ever seen
Or I can terrify you, baring all my teeth
I'm the sickest person, that looks like I'm okay
It changes with the weather, changes every day
(I don't know who I am)
Falling down again
Trying to get up
From where I've always been
But nothing's been enough
To break through these clouds
When I'm stuck on the ground
Falling down again, down again
Falling down again
I could be your best friend, and keep your secret safe
Or I can play pretend and, be completely fake
Do my best to be good, and try to do what's right
But the truth is that I'm ruthless, and every word's a lie

Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
(I don't know who I am)
Falling down again
Trying to get up
From where I've always been
But nothing's been enough
To break through these clouds
When I'm stuck on the ground
Falling down again, down again
Falling down again
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
I could be an angel
(Whoa, whoa, whoa)
I could be an angel
(Whoa, whoa, whoa)
I could be an angel
(Whoa, whoa, whoa)
But I don't want to die
Falling down again
Trying to get up
From where I've always been
But nothing's good enough
To break through these clouds
Falling down again, down again
Falling down again

Falling down
(Falling down again)
(Down again)
