

Oxygen

Lansdowne

Looking on back and I wonder why
I'm still caught in the middle
Shook it all off although still I try
To get out of my way
I've been paranoid
Like a man on the run and I'm thinking
Maybe you're the one
I can't escape

I can't believe I was caught in your fire
Now I see through the smoke and the lies
Finally I can breathe as I'm rising
Above the ashes
Alive again
Oxygen
Oxygen

Looking on back now and remembering
All the ways that you did it
Getting under my skin and sinking in
Just like a parasite
I've been paralyzed
Comatose but I'm waking up now
Maybe you're the one
Who's broken inside

I can't believe I was caught in your fire
Now I see through the smoke and the lies
Finally, I can breathe as I'm rising
Alive again
Oxygen

Comatose but I'm waking up now
Comatose but I'm waking up now
Comatose but I'm waking up now

I can't believe I was caught in your fire
Now I see through the smoke and the lies
Finally I can breathe as I'm rising
Alive again
Oxygen

I can't believe I was caught in your fire (Oxygen)
Now I see through the smoke and the lies
Finally I can breathe as I'm rising
Alive again
