

Congrats

LANY

I hope you're throwing a party
I hope you're feeling yourself
I know it won't but the icing
On your cake should say
26 going on 12

Round of applause
You got what you want

You broke my fucking heart
You tore my world apart
Went so low, I didn't know
That you were capable of that
So here's to all the times
You made me want to cry
Got your way, so celebrate
And pat yourself on the back

Baby, congrats
Congrats

I hope you're popping some bottles
I hope you're out on the town
If I were you I'd be watching
What I say 'cause
What goes around, comes back around

You lie through your teeth
Tell me how do you sleep?

Knowing you broke my fucking heart
You tore my world apart
Went so low, I didn't know
That you were capable of that
So here's to all the times
You made me want to cry
Got your way, so celebrate
And pat yourself on the back

Baby, congrats
Congrats

They say that karma is a bitch
I pray to God it really is

'Cause you broke my fucking heart
You tore my world apart
Went so low, I didn't know
That you were capable of that
So here's to all the times
You made me want to cry
Got your way, so celebrate
And pat yourself on the back

Baby, congrats
Congrats
You hurt me bad

Baby, congrats
