LANY

All of my life, I've been searching for something
I give everything and I end up with nothing
I only hurt myself to please everyone else
So I've packed up my things and the engine is running

'Cause I just can't keep going like this

So I'm learning how to live without needing anybody
Rolling like the wind, tryna leave it all behind me
Know that I'm not there
But finally, feels like I'm getting somewhere, somewhere

Headed out West where the sun's always shining
Back where I'm from, there ain't no silver lining
When it rains, it pours, no calm before the storm
It hurts you so bad that you just feel like driving

I said I can't keep going like this
Oh, no

So I'm learning how to live without needing anybody
Rolling like the wind, tryna leave it all behind me
Know that I'm not there
But finally, feels like I'm getting somewhere, somewhere

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
Ooh, ooh, somewhere
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
Ooh, ooh, somewhere

So I'm learning how to live without needing anybody
Rolling like the wind, tryna leave it all behind me
Know that I'm not there
But finally, feels like I'm getting somewhere, somewhere
Getting somewhere, somewhere

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
Ooh, ooh, somewhere
