

Somebody Does

La'Porsha Renae

Spending no time on the weekend
And we don't talk, barely even anymore
We don't even kiss as of recent
I'm pretty sure it's safe to assume you cheated on me
Somebody else been checking on me for the last 2 weeks

Neither one of us is blind, it's plain to see
You were never ever mine, you don't want me
You don't want this to be yours if you don't want this good love
Baby, baby, you can try trust that somebody does
Somebody, that somebody does
Somebody

Oh, you wanna talk now, do ya?
I don't got a thing to say to ya, no
Matter fact, beep, beep, there's your Uber
I really, really don't think that I was asking too much
But everything that you wouldn't do believe me he does

Neither one of us is blind, it's plain to see
You were never ever mine, you don't want me
You don't want this to be yours if you don't want this good love
Baby, baby, you can try trust that somebody does
Somebody, that somebody does
Somebody

I hope you get your thing together
Really need to get your thing together
For the next girl, whoever she is, you need to get your thing together
Man, you ain't gon' never get your thing together

Neither one of us is blind, it's plain to see
You were never ever mine, you don't want me
You don't want this to be yours if you don't want this good love
Baby, baby, you can try trust that somebody does
Neither one of us is blind, it's plain to see
You were never ever mine, you don't want me
You don't want this to be yours if you don't want this good love
Baby, baby, you can try trust that somebody does
Somebody, that somebody does
Somebody
