All the letters that I wrote
All the pictures that I took
Every ticket
Every ticket

Light fills the room with heat
But my cold words freeze the scene
Every ticket
Every ticket

Turn away to face the balcony
Turn the corner to uncertainty
From the beginning
To the last minute

It's not easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
Easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
It's not easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
Easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
It's not easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
Easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
It's not easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
Easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)

Letters scattered on the floor
Pictures thrown against the wall
Like I had an option
Too far to lose someone
Think about you every day
All the complex things you would say
To smooth the edges
And bring me down a few places

It's not easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
Easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
It's not easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)
Easy letting go, it's not that simple (Somebody you love)

I tried to make it work (You know I tried to go the distance)
For the times you never heard (I'd be screaming in the silence)
You just sink into the solitude (I tried to lift us up)
I can't carry both of us (I tried to make it work)

I tried to make it work
For the times you never heard
You just sink into the solitude
I can't carry both of us

You know I tried to go the distance
I'd be screaming in the silence
I tried to lift us up
I tried to make it work
