

Paradise

Låpsley

I'm falling in love again
And everyone says I'm moving too fast
But see me open doors again
That everyone thought I'd shut in the past

Oh, she's moving at ultralight
Too fast
And forward
Oh, she's gonna regret the time
Too rash
And thoughtless

But I don't need to think twice
Oh, this love is paradise
No, I don't need to think twice
Oh, this love is paradise

I'm learning to be honest now
And that's a path I'm still walking down
And trusting unconditionally
But that's still a wall I'm trying to break down

Ooh, she's mindlessly wandering
That's right
Yeah, my head's in the clouds
Ooh, she's lost in the fog again
That's right
But it's freedom at last

I don't need to think twice
Oh, this love is paradise
No, I don't need to think twice
Oh, this love is paradise

I'm moving at ultralight
Moving at ultralight
Give it all up tonight
'Cause it feels right, baby

I don't need to think twice
Oh, this love is paradise
No, I don't need to think twice
Oh, this love is paradise

I'm moving at ultralight
Moving at ultralight
Give it all up tonight
'Cause it feels right, baby

I don't need to think twice
